

Small groups

Today's readings about the problem of AIDS and other STDs focus on the need for open communication about the relative risks of various sexual choices and on the use of condoms.

- What programs should congregations institute to reduce the spread of AIDS and other STDs?
- What pastoral care should be provided to those already infected?